ALMA MATER

*Let us greet our dear old College
With a hearty cheer!
For our hearts are ever loyal
Alma Mater dear.
We're the students of old Martin
College old and dear
With our faces all set onward
Voices ringing clear.*

*Broad the fields about us lying
Soft and blue the sky
Sing, O sing aloud her praises
Raise the flag on high.
Tho our bonds can ne'er be broken
Sealed by friendship's tie
Our true hearts will every cherish
Memories gone by.*

P.G.H.

DEDICATION

Historic, revered, Martin Hall was destroyed by fire on January 30, 1956. With it perished many experiences, treasures and facilities. Before its passing, the stately structure rendered many unforgettable services. Its purpose was renewed in the heart of every person it had touched. As it perished, school spirit and faith were regenerated.

To the purpose for which it was erected, to the immeasurable contribution which it rendered to the world, and to those who love and cherish memories of it, we humbly dedicate this edition of the MARTINAIRE.

President Fowler with the cornerstone and metal boxes taken from Martin Hall.

This eventful school year, 1955-1956, will be remembered forever by members of the Martin College family. It was this year that Martin Hall burned. And then, with no loss of time, plans were made for the building of a new administration, auditorium and classroom building.

The spirit of Martin was tried in all these experiences and was not found wanting. Students, faculty and staff went through many unpleasant days and remained calm, understanding and devoted to the high ideals of Martin College.

Graduates, the future of the College is secure as long as the spirit you manifested in the crisis remains among the alumni.

Students, next year you will likely have the joy of occupying new academic quarters.

Martin will continue to move forward and upward.

Sincerely,

J. Fort Fowler

FIRE! FIRE! MARTIN HALL . . . January 30, 1956, 10:30 p.m. . . . a night everyone will remember . . . smoke, heat . . . moving records, files, desks, equipment . . . loss of the library, organ, art and commercial departments, faculty offices' contents . . . below freezing, water, ice . . . still burning two days later . . . front columns falling . . . Gym and Science Buildings saved!

We give thanks that no one was injured and praise all who worked so untiringly through the night and the following day. To the administration, we say thank you for the quick recovery and return to a regular school routine.

MARTIN INDIANS

The 1955-56 season was not the most successful that has ever been enjoyed by the Martin Fandom, but it certainly had its exciting moments. Perhaps the best game Martin played was against the Vanderbilt Freshmen. In this game Martin was at their peak in aggressiveness and alertness and were beaten only because Vandy had them outmanned.

The Last Will and Testament of the Sophomore Class of 1956

Know all men by these present, that we, the Sophomore Class of 1956 of Martin College having the same manners, mores, and mishaps as when we enrolled in this great institution of knowledge, do make, shake, scramble, and quaver, proclaim and publish this our last will and testament, hereby revoking, choking, cancelling and destroying and making absolutely null and void all former wills whatsoever by us at anytime heretofore made.

ARTICLE I

To the Freshman Class, we bestow our very best inferiority complexes and our very highly developed and latest techniques.

To the Faculty, we leave, to your immense relief, but take heed, the worst (the Freshman Class) is yet to come.

To Mrs. Farris, we leave the happy thought that we have educated the Freshmen well.

To Mrs. King, we the boys, leave you our dormitory with all its weird noises, phantom shapes, and ghosts clad in shower curtains.

To Mrs. Woodard, we leave, promising to be in by 10:00 p.m. when we return for a visit.

To the Administration, we leave in your care for future less fortunate classes, our innocent looks, angelic ways, and intellectual abilities.

To Mrs. Rayburn, we, the annual staff, leave the assurance that no other group could consume as many cookies and soft drinks, rearrange a room on such short notice, or take as long to compose a page and write a will.

ARTICLE II

We, the individual students of this great Class of '56, will our traits and possessions to the following:

- I, Jimmie Ann Adams, leave my exciting rides to "Tex" Jones.
- I, Ben Alford, will my ability to impersonate Eartha Kitt to Betty Woodson.
- I, Joe Allen, leave my B.S. (Bachelor of Sweeping) degree and my ability to cut fingers for blood tests in the lab, to any eligible young scientist.
- I, Roberta Andrews, leave my Chemistry Lab workshop to the lucky one?
- I, Barbara Barlar, leave my ability to write notes in English Literature class and not get caught to Jimmie Nell Lee.
- I, Floy Barnes, leave my love of basketball to Martha Ruth Bass.
- I, Gerald Bass, leave any abilities I might have to anyone who wants them.
- I, Ann Bledsoe, leave my ability to write love sonnets to Sue Patterson.
- I, Glenn Bonner, will my ability to go to sleep in class to Sam Massey.
- I, Jose Bove, leave my Cuban accent to Jang Sup Kim.
- I, Laura Brewer, will my ability to sing "Temptation" in a hill-billy way to Sandra Hooper.
- We, Sue and Tommy Cardin, leave our wedded bliss to Rebecca Flowers and her future husband.
- I, Yu Sang Chang, leave my position on the tennis team to Lynn Murphree.
- I, Clint Churchwell, leave my title of "Bishop" to Bill Balch.
- I, J. D. Coffman, leave, knowing that my son someday will follow in my footsteps.
- I, Walter Cox, leave my love (?) for English to "Bo Weevil" Witt.
- I, Carmack Cullins, leave my Organic Chemistry coffee cup to Russell Looney, with hopes that he doesn't have to buy donuts for the class any oftener than I.
- I, Bobby Curtis, leave my Chemistry knowledge that I didn't get to K Matthews.
- I, Jimmy Douglas, leave the girls weeping, as well as leave the girls, weeping.
- I, Joyce Eckert, leave my ability to blush anytime, anywhere, for no reason at all to Velma Jean Oliver.
- I, Fay Eslick, leave my quiet ways to Janice Rogers.
- I, Helen Eubank, leave my ability to give parties to anyone who can uphold the reputation.
- I, Nell Evans, leave my vitality for living to John Swift.
- I, Henry Fairbetter, leave my dry sense of humor to Fred Stovall.
- I, George Frey, leave my flaming hair to Ray Wiggins.
- I, Mary Ann Gunter, leave Beech Hill in the hands of Marilyn Harwell.
- I, Larry Hewgley, leave my position as custodian of third floor, Boys' Dormitory, to Lee Roy Wright.
- I, Patsy Hollis, leave my B.D. (Bachelor of Dusting) degree and my workshop in the Lab to anyone who likes to smell formaldehyde.
- I, Frances Johnson, leave my ability to get an M.R.S. degree to all worthy candidates.
- I, Bill Lassiter, leave, minus my car.
- I, Bobby Lewis, leave my constant praise of Issac Litton High to Mary Eleanor McGee.

- I, E. T. Martin, leave my job as driver of the "Red Wreck" to anyone with more spare time than brains.
- I, Carol Maxwell, leave my ability to sleep through eight o'clock class to Willa York.
- I, Juanita Merrell, leave my talents to Jane Waggoner.
- I, Joyce Mitchell, leave my ever-present smile to Billy Lay.
- I, Fay Moore, leave my suntan to Fran Carlock.
- I, Gail Murphree, leave my curly hair to Kirby Pollard.
- I, James Murray, leave my love for Biology to "Slick" Torrence.
- I, Martha Murray, leave all my fun in Physical Education to Linda Sparks.
- I, Lynn McCarn, leave my lengthy telephone calls to Mary Ann Gattis.
- I, Betty McClanahan, leave, hoping I don't forget my hat.
- I, Dorothy McCord, leave my place in English Literature class to Thelma Felker.
- I, Julia McGlothlin, leave my solo parts and all my good times on those wild chorus trips to Helen Greenway.
- I, Hilda McMinn, leave my shortness to Judy Barnes.
- I, James Neal, leave my secret power-packed formula for detergent to anyone wearing asbestos clothes.
- I, Onelia Nunez, leave my black wavy hair to Cecil Duncan.
- I, Thomas Park, like the Arabs, silently steal away.
- I, June Partlow, leave my room in the dorm to anyone who likes to live in an atmosphere of Grand Central Station.
- I, Luke Pinegar, leave my workshop in the Boys' Dormitory to anyone who wants the job of trying to keep the place clean.
- I, Jean Price, leave my mischievous ways to anyone who can manage them.
- I, Thomas Price, leave my jokes to Gary Cantrell.
- I, J. D. Reyer, leave, to take a job in Chattanooga.
- I, Joyce Riley, leave my workshop in the front office to anyone lucky enough to get it.
- I, Raul Rodriguez, leave my South American music to Leonard Perry.
- I, Zane Shands, will my ca-razy laugh to Mary Lou Moore.
- I, Sue Shelton, leave my position at the ping-pong table to Jeanne Partlow.
- I, James Shoemaker, leave, to return to my beloved Nashville.
- I, Eldon Smith, will my position in the book store (not a job) to anyone that has twenty or thirty hours per week to spare.
- I, Robert Smith, will, with my blessings, the presidency of the Ministerial Association to any eligible person.
- I, Edith Somerville, leave my enthusiasm for everything including "boys" to Joyce Shasteen.
- I, Jane Southerland, leave my southern accent to Chin Pil Cho.
- I, Juanita Spann, leave Dean Whitley in charge of the Johnson Rod on the "Red Wreck," in hopes it doesn't fall off, blow up, or break again.
- I, Verna Bell Spann, leave my baby-sitting duties to Mary Ann Carter.
- I, Alecan Stancil, leave my chair in music class to "Cut" Cantrell.
- I, Betty Stuart, will my enthusiasm for studying to Betty Graves.
- I, Garie Taylor, leave my hearty laugh to Bobbie York.
- I, Jimmy Thomas, leave my love for Mercurys and Boxer dogs to Phillip Hollis.
- I, Bill Tomlin, leave my presidency of the Phi Theta Kappa to some aspiring freshman.
- I, Dennis Tramel, leave my ability to filabuster in Western Civilization class to Bill Liddle.
- I, Nancy Tucker, leave my muchly used campusology notes to Mary Elizabeth Boyd.
- I, Marjorie Waggoner, leave my trials and tribulations of being the only girl in Organic Chemistry to Patsy Patterson.
- I, Sara White, leave my ability to type to Luann Stone.
- I, Sherry White, leave my title as official waker-upper to anyone with a loud alarm clock.

ARTICLE III

We do hereby nominate and appoint the Doochin Wrecking Company our executors. In witness whereof, we do this, we set our hand, this the second day of April, 1956.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

Signed and published by the said Sophomore Class, as and for, their last will and testament, in the presence of us, the undersigned, who, at their request, and in their sight and presence, and in the sight and presence of each other have subscribed our names hereto as attesting witnesses.
